

PROJECT SCOPE STATEMENT

Project Name

TAILORED DIET

Project Deliverables

Identification	The users can create an account and login to view contents in the website. The experts will be able to create an account and log in to interact with the website
Book/View Appointment	The experts and the clients will both be able to book and view appointments.
Blogs	The experts will be able to put out educational blogs that will be read by clients, giving them extra information about health and diet.
Diet plans	The clients will be able to view diet plans that are specific to their health conditions.
Medical Records Form	The clients/patients will able to give some medical records that will available to the experts, so as to help the experts assess conditions better

Project Exclusions

The client(carryover customer) section of the website will not be fully explored in the scope of this project. This is as a result of the time frame that is assigned to this project.